

Biography - Mr. Gregory Prothero, Requirements Center Director in Defense Systems Management College, DAU

Greg Prothero is the Requirements Center Director in DAU's Defense Systems Management College. He and his team manage Congressionally mandated DoD requirements training in partnership with J8. Before joining DAU in 2009, he served in a 21 year Air Force career various operational positions in tactical airlift and training units as a navigator, planning DV Airlift for AF-1 and Congress, and serving in A5R (Requirements). Prothero has an MS degree in Operations Management from the University of Arkansas and a MS degree in National Resource Strategy from the National Defense University. He has a BS in Public Administration from Indiana University.